

International Business Consultancy:

- offers technical and operational support in order to improve the feasibility of the commercialization of products abroad.
- evaluates products and/or services with which the company has better conditions to compete – e.g. more competitive pricing, faster international services and international quality.
- analyses product restrictions in the market, technical specifications, product adjustment according to the standards used in each market according to the customer needs.

Sales Representative

- performs mediation within international business sales.
- maintains foreign contacts abroad.
- understands the demands for commercialization, such as: distribution channels, distributors, stores, exclusivity, promotional support.

Trading Company

- offers documentation, operational services and logistics in the export and import sector.
- evaluates the best methods to export and to import, whether directly or through Global Enterprises.
- provides all the export and import documentation papers

